

Accounting Technology & Innovation Centre (AccTech Centre)

A joint initiative between SIT and Singapore Accountancy Commission, the Accounting Technology & Innovation Centre (AccTech Centre) is a resource centre that facilitates collaboration and catalyses technology and business innovations in the accounting sector.

Through AccTech Centre, local accounting entities will have the opportunity to work with SIT faculty, technology partners, and government agencies to innovate processes, service delivery, products, and business models.

Partnering AccTech Centre

Leverage on SIT's Resources

- Expertise from SIT Faculty to assist companies develop innovative technologies and business models
- Access to SIT students to support industry projects

Industry Collaborations

- Company projects on technology innovation
- Networking opportunities with thought leaders and technology partners

Training & Upskilling

- Workshops & Symposiums on Advanced Accounting Technologies
- Training & Certifications by SITLEARN Professional Development

